English Spelling: Easy Practice Paper 4 Answers

Q#	Answer	Explanation
1	A	‘Sataday’ should be spelled ‘Saturday’. The middle of the word is spelled like the planet Saturn: Sat-ur-day. The mistake is in group A.
2	D	‘shineing’ should be spelled ‘shining’. Shine ends in a silent e, and that e is dropped before -ing: shin(e) + ing gives shining. The mistake is in group D.
3	B	‘geting’ should be spelled ‘getting’. Get ends in a short vowel and a single consonant, so the t is doubled before -ing: get + t + ing. The mistake is in group B.
4	E	Every word here is spelled correctly. Funnier changes the y of funny to i before -er, and agreed keeps both e letters of agree. So there is no mistake in this sentence.
5	C	‘colourfull’ should be spelled ‘colourful’. The ending -ful is spelled with one l when it is added to a word: colour + ful. The mistake is in group C.
6	A	‘Thier’ should be spelled ‘Their’. The word has the i before the e, and the word heir is hidden inside it: t-heir. The mistake is in group A.
7	D	‘sandwhich’ should be spelled ‘sandwich’. The second part has no h after the w, unlike the question word which. The mistake is in group D.
8	E	Every word here is spelled correctly. Puppies changes the y of puppy to i and adds -es, and field is i before e. So there is no mistake in this sentence.
9	B	‘nock’ should be spelled ‘knock’. Knock begins with a silent k, like knee, knot and know. The mistake is in group B.
10	C	‘biscits’ should be spelled ‘biscuits’. There is a silent u after the c: bis-cuit. The mistake is in group C.
